Enphase Energy Board of Directors Responds to 2026 Annual Meeting Vote Results and Announces Governance Enhancements

FREMONT, Calif., Aug. 10, 2026 — Enphase Energy, Inc. (NASDAQ: ENPH), a global energy technology company, today announced that its Board of Directors, excluding Benjamin Kortlang, unanimously voted to retain Mr. Kortlang as a member of the Board of Directors. The decision followed a recommendation by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, excluding Mr. Kortlang, in accordance with Enphase Energy's Corporate Governance Guidelines.

Following a thorough review, the Board, excluding Mr. Kortlang, unanimously reaffirmed its support and highlighted the attributes he brings to the Board:

- Deep knowledge of Enphase Energy, its technology roadmap, and strategic priorities
- Experience in capital markets and clean energy investing, together with significant understanding of the residential and commercial energy markets, customer adoption trends, and competitive dynamics
- Experience in energy and data center infrastructure supporting Enphase Energy's IQ® SST expansion into AI data centers
- Unwavering commitment, with perfect attendance at all Board and Committee meetings for the past five years

The Board recognizes that the 2026 director vote and stockholder feedback reflect a desire for continued evolution in governance and Board composition. Accordingly, the following actions are underway:

- In June 2026, Shanker Trivedi was appointed to the Board, adding deep expertise in data centers, cloud infrastructure, and high-performance computing
- Joseph Malchow will become Chair of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, effective immediately, bringing his board and investment experience to the role
- Mr. Kortlang will continue to serve on the Audit Committee and Strategic Committee, where his experience supports oversight of Enphase Energy's financial and strategic priorities
- Enphase Energy will continue active stockholder engagement and evaluate additional governance enhancements in the best interests of stockholders

"The Board approached this review with great care and took the stockholder vote seriously," said Steve Gomo, chair of Enphase Energy's Board of Directors. "We concluded that Mr. Kortlang's experience, judgment, independence, and contributions remain valuable to the Board and the company. We also believe Mr. Malchow is well positioned to lead the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee as we continue to strengthen our governance practices."
